

Linus Skirius

Civic Resilience Initiative

Effective educational approaches in fighting disinformation

@CivicResilienceInitiative

CivicResilience

civicsresilienceinitiative

About us

The Civic Resilience Initiative (CRI) is a Lithuanian non-governmental-organization founded in 2018 in Vilnius

CRI goals

To IDENTIFY potential problems and dangers for the Lithuanian society and the broader region;

To FACILITATE trainings, events, expert meetings, bring experts and activists together;

To CATALYZE change in the society, making it more resilient to modern threats (disinformation, cyber challenges, election manipulation and others).

@CivicResilienceInitiative

CivicResilience

civiclesilienceinitiative

Gamified learning

The Need for Change

The Solution

Broad Application

Case Studies

Advantages of Game-Based Learning:

Increased Engagement | Active Learning | Personalized Learning
Social Interaction | Transferable Skills | Long-Term Retention | Science Backed

• Game-based learning

Advantages:

Increased Engagement | Active Learning | Personalized Learning
Social Interaction |

Transferable Skills | Long-Term Retention | Science
Backed

Computer game for media literacy

Disinformation
Challenge

CIVIC RESILIENCE INITIATIVE

NEW EAST

Google

Embark on a virtual adventure

WWW.DISINFORMATIONCHALLENGE.COM

Go to the assembly hall on the second floor

What do we foster?

Critical thinking

Fact checking

How to debate

Reverse Image Search

Account verification

Author verification

Source verification

Challenges: How to Make It Sustainable?

- Offering recognized certifications for teachers.
- Providing comprehensive teaching guides.
- Developing adaptable toolkits for various educational settings.
- Introducing incentives to motivate participation.

AI breakthrough:
A guide to tackling
disinformation

This publication is sponsored by

Google

Disinformation
Challenge

CIVIC RESILIENCE INITIATIVE

NEW EAST

Google

Embark on a virtual adventure

WWW.DISINFORMATIONCHALLENGE.COM

Linus Skirius

Civic Resilience Initiative

Effective educational approaches in fighting disinformation

@CivicResilienceInitiative

CivicResilience

civicsresilienceinitiative

