

Crediting photos from the Media & Learning conference

You are welcome to use the images from the conference on social media and on your website(s) as long as appropriate credit is given

What to include:

- Licence: CC BY-SA
- By: Arnaud Absil
- From: Media and Learning Association

Example:

Placement of Credit:

Digital: Place the credit line (or footnote) near the image, either below, beside, or within the image itself (if it's a full bleed).

Print: Credit should be clear and concise, often placed near the image or within a dedicated credit section.

When emailing include the following disclaimer text:

All photos provided by the Media and Learning Association are licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike (CC BY-SA) Licence. This means you are free to use, share, and adapt the images for any purpose, even commercially, provided that appropriate credit is given, any changes are indicated, and the resulting work is shared under the same licence.

Credit Requirements

Each image must be clearly credited as follows:

For the conference photos of 2026 please use the following information:

Placement of Credit

- Digital Use: Place the credit line near the image — either directly below, beside, or within the image itself (e.g., as an overlay on full-bleed visuals).

- Print Use: Include the credit near the image or in a designated image credit section that is clearly linked to the photo.

Failure to properly attribute images may be considered a violation of the licence terms.

For further inquiries or clarification regarding image use, please contact the Media and Learning Association.
