

MEDIASPACE @ UNIVERSITY OF PADOVA

Mediaspace is a multimedia site developed by Digital Learning and Multimedia Office of the University of Padova on Kaltura video platform.

In this platform students, teachers and staff of the University can upload and publish multimedia files, share contents and create collaboration networks.

<https://mediaspace.unipd.it>

In less than 2 years more than 4,000 videos, podcasts, photos and presentations were uploaded.

Multimedia contents on site have different formats and purposes.

For example:

- Lecture capture, tutorials, course presentations and experiments, students assignments for teaching.
 - Promotional video, teasers, animations and documentaries, events and live streaming for communication.
 - Tutorials and screencasts for internal communication.
 - Project outcomes, seminars, conferences and multimedia archive for research.

Digital learning and multimedia office supports all Unipd community who want to create multimedia with different activities of counseling, training, lending materials, technical support and multimedia production.

The screenshot displays the YouTube channel page for 'Portfolio video DLM' from the University of Padua. The channel's header is red and includes the university's logo, name, and navigation links such as 'Home', 'Dipartimenti', 'Scuola', 'Eventi e conferenze', 'Servizi di Ateneo', 'Centri di Ateneo', 'Alumni', and 'Channels'. A search bar and user options are also present. Below the header, the channel's name 'Portfolio video DLM' is displayed, along with a description: 'In this channel you can find the main video formats produced by the Digital Learning and Multimedia Office.' A video player shows a thumbnail of two people in front of a wall with murals. Below the player, there are options for 'Public, Restricted And Moderated', '27 Media', '1 Members', and 'Managers'. The channel's video grid is organized into three categories: 'PRESENTATIONS, TRAILERS, TEASERS', 'DOCUMENTARY', and 'MOTION GRAPHICS'. Each category shows a grid of video thumbnails with their respective titles and durations.
